Get Rid of Scrofula How? Take S.S.S.

Fifty Years' Use Proves S. S. S. Will Relieve Stubborn Cases

You have noticed the little festering pimples on the face and body—swelling of the glands—soreness in the legs and arm muscles. These are the symptoms of Scrofula. You may have some of these symptoms, possibly the taint of Scrofula infection. But in either case, it is a dangerous condition. Your blood is infected, impure, and you can never hope to gain perfect health until the impurities are washed from the system. If you feel badly all the time, you must crave health. If you want to feel renewed spirits, the glow of perfect health, bright eyes, clear skin, the knowledge that you are well, you can do so. Cleanse your blood by taking S. S. S. For fifty years it has been the standard blood purifier. It relieves the trouble by renewing the blood, renewing its strength, and stimulating the flow so that the blood regains its lost vitality, and throws off the poison. Even long-standing cases respond. But you must use S. S. S. Take it for all blood infections. Get it at your druggist's today. If you need special advice, write the S. S. S. Co., Atlanta, Ga.

The Scrap Book

Parting the Newlyweds.

"You know Carl G. Fisher, president of the speedway and Indiana Dixie highway commission," says the Indianapolis News. "Well, way back in the years when he was younger Carl was a 'peanut' on the J. M. and L. railroad—that is, he sold the passengers things they didn't want for prices they never had paid anywhere except on the train. But he was a very good little news 'butch' and was very attentive to the passengers.

"One day a bride got aboard Carl's train with her husband. They were, as Harry Lauder would say, 'bound on their honeymoon.' Carl saw at a glance that they were new in travel as well as matrimony. So as they climbed the steps Carl, standing on the platform, took charge of them.

"Gents to the right, ladies to the left," said the attentive Mr. Fisher. "And in they went, Mr. Newlywed taking a seat to the right of the aisle, his bride to the left. They rode thus, so near and yet so far, all the way to Louisville, each convinced that Quaker meeting house methods were an abomination when exercised on railroad trains."—Louisville Times.

A Thanksgiving. Ah, that was long ago when I thanked God that all my days went by in careless ease and mirth! A Pharisee, I thanked him then That I knew not like other men The bitterness of earth.

Ah, that was long ago! Today, "Thank God for this, my grief," I say, Seeing by this alone, I sometimes, watching in the night, Catch far, faint visions of that height No lesser light had shown.

Ah, long ago I did not guess, So arrogant my happiness, How poor my praise and vain! Dear God, today what thanks are meet, Seeing I clamber to thy feet Up these steep stairs of pain? —Theodosia Garrison.

A Joke That Recollected.

Professor Ikono of Tokyo university is well known for his absentmindedness. One evening on his way from school, says the East and West News, he struck his head against a telegraph post. "Pardon me, pardon me," he said, and quickened his gait. A certain colleague of the same university happened to see this from the other side of the street, and the following day said to the professor: "I was surprised last night by your carelessness, Mr. Ikono. You dashed against me in the street and I feel the pain still." "Oh, was it you?" was the reply. "Please excuse me. I did not know it was you. It felt wooden." Then a roar of laughter went round the professor's room, but at the expense of the colleague.

Musical Advice. A concert in aid of the fund for something or other had been arranged in the village schoolroom, and all the local "stars" were booked to appear. The favorite soprano, before she appeared to sing, apologized for her cold. Then she started: "I'll hang my harp on a willow tree—ah—on a willow tree—oh—Her voice broke on the high note each time. Then a voice came from the back of the hall. "Try hanging it on a lower branch, miss."

A Purist.

Most persons believe Stevenson's verses for children may, without correction or amendment, safely be placed in the hands of the impressionable youngster without corrupting either his morals or his English. But there are some who think otherwise, says an exchange.

Little Alice's mother, having taught the child to say, "Time to rise," in which "the birdie with a yellow bill" figures, the child announced that she meant to recite it to her teacher.

"Well, and what did Miss Prim say to 'the birdie with a yellow bill?'" asked Alice's mother when the little girl returned from school.

"She says it is quite a pretty thought. But this is the way she makes me say it now, mamma:

"A birdie with a yellow bill Hopped upon the window sill, Cocked his shining eyes and said, 'Are you not ashamed, you sleepyhead?'"

"But that was not the way the birdie said it, Alice," the mother remonstrated.

"No, mamma; I know. But teacher says it isn't good English to say, 'Ain't you 'shamed, you sleepyhead?'"

Hard on the Chairs. Among the ancestors of Wendell Phillips were several Puritan clergymen. Perhaps it was a push of heredity which made him at five years of age a preacher.

His congregation was composed of circles of chairs arranged in his father's parlor, while a taller chair, with a Bible on it, served him for a pulpit. He would harnage these wooden auditors by the hour.

"Wendell," said his father to him one day, "don't you get tired of this?" "No, papa," wittily replied the boy, "I don't get tired, but it is rather hard on the chairs."

RECOMMENDS CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY

"I never hesitate to recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Sol Williams, merchant, Jesse, Tenn. "I sell more of it than any other preparation of like character. I have used it myself and found it gave me more relief than anything else I have ever tried for the same purpose." Obtainable everywhere.

ADVERTISE IN THE STAR.

Banish the "Blues!"

If you have that depressed feeling it's more than likely that your blood is out of order—impooverished or poisoned. There is only one thing that will alter your present condition—that's to restore your stomach to normal health and strength. For a weak or diseased stomach cannot make good blood. If your digestion is bad your food will not make the good blood which nourishes body, brain, heart and nerve.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

helps the stomach to do its work naturally and properly. Stimulates the liver. The system is freed from poison. The blood is purified. Every organ is rejuvenated. Instead of the "Blues," you feel fit and strong, equal to any task or up to any pleasure.

This great remedy has proved its worth year after year for over forty years. Let it prove its worth to you. Sold by medicine dealers in tablet or liquid form or send for trial box by mail.

Send 31 one-cent stamps to pay cost of mailing only on a free copy of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1903, pages 99-100, Address: J. C. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

HOMELAND

Homeland, Aug. 12.—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Parker and family, accompanied by several parties from Cotton Plant spent two days the early part of this week at Lake Sixteen. They all report having had a splendid time.

A protracted meeting is being conducted here at present under Rev. Mason, of Dunnellon. After this week the meeting will be continued at St. John's church.

The people of Homeland deeply sympathize with the people of Blitchton in their sorrow on account of the awful accident of Tuesday afternoon. The parties are well known to our community and the accident was a blow to us here.

Misses Pearl and Alma Sykes of Leroy were the guests of Miss Mamie Parker here for several days this week.

Messrs. Zula Hathcock and T. Johnson, of York, were among the business callers at Homeland Wednesday. Your correspondent wants to impress upon the people of Marion county that our people here are against this county division movement, and anything we can do to prevent being "cussed" from dear old Marion into a new experiment will be done between this and election day.
